Do you need an AI governance certification? The honest answer, plus which of the five that matter fits your background, goals, and budget.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Do you need an AI governance certification? The honest answer, plus which of the five that matter fits your background, goals, and budget.

KEY TAKEAWAYS

- There is no single "best" AI governance certification; the right one depends on your background and goal.
- Five worth knowing: NIST AI RMF training, ISO/IEC 42001 training, the IAPP AIGP, ISACA's AI courses, and cloud-provider AI training.
- Privacy, legal, or compliance background? The AIGP is the natural next step.
- Risk, audit, or governance background? Start with NIST AI RMF and ISO/IEC 42001.
- A certificate strengthens credibility; experience and judgment are what actually get you hired.
